This Month's Event Highlights

2nd 6:30 Angelina Community Theatre Presents Driving Miss Daisy featuring Pat Baldwin

3rd 10:00 Lunch at Wiley Hotel Garrison Texas

The Town of Garrison was founded in 1885. By about 1900 the Hotel Wiley, owned by Mrs. S. A. (Mattie) Wiley, was in full operation. The Hotel was frequented by railroad and telephone workers, traveling salesmen and townspeople who enjoyed Mrs. Wiley's family style meals in the dining room. At one time the Hotel had about 38 rooms including a two-story annex that later was removed. The structure is a fine example of early 20th century Railroad Hotel, exhibiting Queen Anne style influences in its hipped roof, decorative spindle work in the lower cross gables, multi-light dormer windows and wraparound porch. (Text from the Texas Historical Commission plaque at the historical site.)
